ABHFL makes first-time home ownership more accessible with PMAY

Through its PMAY-linked home loan offerings, ABHFL is facilitating affordable and accessible homeownership for eligible first-time homebuyers by providing repayment tenures of up to 30 years, funding of up to 90% of the property's market value, flexible eligibility assessment frameworks, and minimal documentation, thereby streamlining the home-buying process and enhancing ease of access to housing finance.

Key Benefits

- 1. Loan amount: Up to Rs. 25 lakhs OR 90% of the property market value
- 2. Tenure flexibility: Up to 30 years, ensuring smaller EMIs.
- 3. Minimal documentation: Tailored for EWS, LIG & MIG
- 4. Interest Subsidy: Rs. 1.8 lakhs in 5 annual instalments
- 5. Doorstep service: Guidance and support at the customer's convenience
- 6. Digital onboarding + Track My Loan: Seamless loan journey with transparency.

Eligibility

- Property Value: Up to ₹35 lakhs
- Carpet Area: Maximum 120 sq.mt (1291 Sq.ft)
- Ownership: Women must be owner/co-owner of the property

The scheme, applicable to only first-time home buyers clearly defines income-based beneficiary segments as follows:

- Economically Weaker Section (EWS): Annual household income up to Rs. 3 lakh
- Low Income Group (LIG): Annual household income between Rs. 3 lakh and Rs. 6 lakh
- Middle Income Group (MIG): Annual household income between Rs. 6 lakh and Rs. 9 lakh

Why it Matters?

India's affordable housing momentum reflects a strong growth outlook, with GDP projected at 7.3% in FY26. This creates favourable conditions for first-time homeownership. As PMAY-U 2.0 advances India's affordable housing agenda, ABHFL continues to expand formal housing finance. This supports the Government of India's Housing for All mission and enables more households to move into organised homeownership.
