Ai+ today announced NovaPods, its first audio lineup, adding a wearable audio layer to the brand's connected device ecosystem. Scheduled to launch in Q1 2026 and priced starting below Rs. 1,000, NovaPods is designed to be worn through the day, combining dependable audio with a form factor focused on comfort, fit, understated design and health.

Glimpse of upcoming NovaPods

The NovaPods lineup includes Ai+ NovaPods Go, Air, Pro, Beats, and Clips.

NovaPods Go, a lightweight earbud, is designed for on-the-go users, prioritising portability and convenience.

NovaPods Air offers a blend of comfort and a powerful audio experience without compromising on style.

NovaPods Pro, delivers enhanced sound clarity and active noise cancellation for an immersive audio experience.

NovaPods Beats not only offers a powerful bass, it also integrates heart rate tracking and SpO2 monitoring for active and wellness-focused users.

NovaPods Clips is where health meets fashion meets immersive listening, with an offering of heightened awareness of the listeners' surroundings.

All NovaPods, across the series, will be available in vibrant, youthful colours similar to those of the Ai+ smartphone line-ups.

Speaking in the announcement, Madhav Sheth, CEO, Ai+ Smartphone and Founder, NxtQuantum Shift Technologies, said, "NovaPods marks a significant step in our journey to integrate technology into daily life seamlessly. With this lineup, we're not just offering a product; we're inviting users to experience a new level of comfort and performance that fits effortlessly into their lifestyles. At Ai+, our mission is to empower users without overwhelming them with complexity or cost."

The launch of NovaPods reflects Ai+'s broader approach to building connected products that work together while remaining easy to adopt. Full product specifications, pricing details, and availability will be announced closer to launch. NovaPods will be launching nationwide in January 2026 through Flipkart & selected offline partners.
