AonMeetings: Built for business, priced for all

The company is introducing three competitively priced monthly subscription tiers tailored to the Indian market, with no annual commitment required. All plans include integrated webinar capabilities at no additional cost:

- Starter Plan – Rs. 169/month ($1.99 USD): Up to 10 participants for calls and webinars
- Professional Plan – Rs. 339/month ($3.99 USD): Up to 25 participants for calls and webinars
- Business Plan – Rs. 599/month ($6.99 USD): Up to 100 participants for calls and webinars
- Enterprise Plan – Custom pricing available for larger organizations (email jhawthorne@aontv.com for pricing)

India represents one of the world's fastest-growing markets for digital communication solutions, and we're excited to bring AONMeetings' reliable, secure platform to Indian consumers and organizations alike, said Dwight Reed, CEO and Founder of AONMeetings. Our India-specific pricing reflects our commitment to making professional-grade video conferencing accessible to everyone across the country—from individuals and families to small businesses, religious communities, and large enterprises. With flexible month-to-month billing, users can scale their communication tools as they grow without long-term contracts.

Unlike competitors that charge premium fees for webinar capabilities—often $79 or more per month—AONMeetings includes integrated webinar functionality in every plan at no additional cost, making it an exceptional value for anyone who needs both video conferencing and webinar hosting.

Key Features for Indian Users:

- Integrated Webinar Capabilities Included in All Plans – No additional fees for professional webinar hosting
- Flexible Monthly Billing – No annual contracts or upfront commitments required
- No Downloads Required – Fully browser-based platform works on any device
- HIPAA-Compliant Security – Enterprise-grade encryption and privacy protection
- Reliable Performance – 99.9% uptime with robust infrastructure
- Multi-Language Support – Platform supports multiple languages for diverse teams

- Local Payment Options – Flexible payment methods for Indian customers
- Perfect for Personal and Professional Use – Ideal for families, freelancers, content creators, coaches, religious services, and businesses
- Ideal for Religious Organizations – Stream services, host prayer meetings, conduct religious education classes, and connect congregations
- Enterprise Solutions Available – Custom plans for larger organizations and special requirements

AONMeetings has earned a 4.9-star rating on G2 and serves over 1,000 businesses globally across healthcare, education, legal, religious organizations, and corporate sectors. The platform's combination of affordability, reliability, and compliance features has made it a trusted choice for organizations and individuals requiring secure communication solutions.

Indian consumers and organizations deserve access to world-class video conferencing technology without the premium price tag, added Reed. Whether you're a content creator in Delhi, a religious leader streaming services, a freelance consultant, a startup in Bangalore, a healthcare clinic in Mumbai, or an educational institution, AONMeetings provides the tools you need to connect, collaborate, and grow your community.

The India launch includes dedicated customer support during Indian business hours and resources tailored to local market needs.
