What is World Book Day?

World Book Day is an annual charity event that takes place in the United Kingdom and Ireland on the first Thursday in March. It is a day dedicated to celebrating the joy of reading and promoting literacy among children. The event was first celebrated in the United Kingdom in 1998 and has since become a significant cultural event.

How is World Book Day celebrated?

On World Book Day, every child in full-time education in the UK and the Republic of Ireland is provided with a voucher to be spent on books. This voucher can be used to purchase a specially selected range of books or can be put towards the cost of any book of their choice. The aim is to encourage children to explore the world of books and discover the pleasure of reading.
