The highlight of the event was the Book Discussion Session centred around Shri Chowdhry's acclaimed work, 'Just Aspire'. The discussion aimed to inspire students to embrace innovation-led entrepreneurship, visionary thinking, and leadership with purpose, reflecting the core values of Galgotias University's educational philosophy.

During the visit, Shri Chowdhry toured the university's state-of-the-art Centres of Excellence, including the Drone Innovation Lab and the Semiconductor Research Lab, where he commended the implementation of the G-SCALE model. He recognised it as a progressive academic framework that effectively integrates global exposure, skill development, competency-based learning, leadership, and entrepreneurship.

Speaking about the university's vision, Shri Ajai Chowdhary said, "It's inspiring to see this kind of innovation ecosystem that Galgotias University is building. The focus on practical learning, research, and entrepreneurship here reflects a future-ready academic framework that seamlessly integrates Global exposure, Skill development, Competency-based learning, Application-oriented teaching, Leadership building, and Entrepreneurship."

Commending Shri Ajai Chowdhry's pioneering contributions to India's technology sector, Dr. Dhruv Galgotia, CEO, Galgotias University, said, "We are deeply honoured to host Shri Ajai Chowdhry, whose journey embodies India's innovation story. His insights on entrepreneurship and the future of technology truly resonated with our students. At Galgotias, we are committed to nurturing innovators and leaders who can drive change and shape the global knowledge economy."

The Galgotias Dialogue Series is a flagship initiative that promotes intellectual exchange, innovation, and leadership, inspiring students to think boldly and lead with purpose as catalysts of change in a rapidly evolving world.
