Galgotias University has signed a strategic Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with Vivo Mobiles, marking a significant step toward bridging the gap between academia and industry. The collaboration aims to provide students with experiential learning, skill enhancement, and hands-on exposure to the latest advancements in mobile technology.

Partners in Progress, Leaders in Mobility.

Galgotias University partners with Vivo Mobiles through a strategic MoU to strengthen experiential learning, innovation, and industry-ready skills for students

Under this partnership, students will benefit from specialized training modules, workshops, and live projects facilitated by industry experts from Vivo. The initiative will not only enrich the technical proficiency of students but also equip them with real-world insights into innovation, product design, and mobile technology trends.

Commenting on the occasion, Dr. Dhruv Galgotia, CEO, Galgotias University, said, "At Galgotias, we believe in empowering students through experiential and industry-driven learning. This collaboration with Vivo Mobiles reflects our ongoing commitment to integrating cutting-edge technology and real-world exposure into academic learning. Through our G-SCALE model, we aim to nurture professionals who are industry-ready and future-focused."

The MoU also underscores Galgotias University's continuous efforts to create meaningful partnerships with global and national industry leaders. By fostering a culture of innovation and collaboration, the university seeks to prepare students for the dynamic demands of the technology sector.

The G-SCALE – Galgotias Student-Centered Active Learning Ecosystem initiative reflects Galgotias University's commitment to experiential and industry-linked education. By promoting active learning and innovation, G-SCALE ensures students gain real-world skills and become future-ready professionals.
