Recognised as one of the best luxury malls in India, Phoenix Palladium offered a fitting setting for the premiere of one of the year's most anticipated films. The landmark event further strengthened the mall's position as a preferred Indian destination for global entertainment, fashion and cultural moments.

The Grand Premiere

The star-studded evening brought together fans, creators, influencers and celebrated names from the Indian film industry, including Riteish and Genelia Deshmukh, Richa Chadha and Ali Fazal, Dimple Kapadia, Boman Irani, Shruti Haasan, Jim Sarbh, Armaan Malik, Nandita Das, Elnaaz Norouzi and Aashna Shroff.

Ahead of the premiere, Christopher Nolan and the cast also met Atul Ruia, Chairman, The Phoenix Mills Ltd., and members of the Phoenix Group family, sharing some warm moments before the screening.

Hosted at one of the biggest malls in India, the premiere added another significant international event to Phoenix Palladium's growing association with cinema and entertainment. With its world-class infrastructure, luxury ambience and diverse experiences, the destination continues to provide a compelling platform for large-scale global events in Mumbai.

India's Preferred Destination for Global Icons

The premiere of The Odyssey builds on Phoenix Palladium's legacy of welcoming some of the world's most recognised personalities. Over the years, the mall has hosted global icons including Rihanna, Vin Diesel, Will Smith and Paris Hilton.

Rihanna's visit to Phoenix Palladium for the Fenty Beauty launch was another landmark moment that placed the destination firmly on the global fashion and beauty map. From Hollywood premieres and celebrity appearances to international brand launches, Phoenix Palladium continues to emerge as a preferred luxury destination for global icons visiting India.

As one of India's best luxury malls, Phoenix Palladium brings together luxury retail, fine dining, entertainment and immersive experiences under one roof. Its distinctive combination of premium brands and world-class hospitality has made it a natural choice for high-profile events of international stature.
