Hong Kong

For culturally inclined travellers, Hong Kong provides plenty of opportunities to delve into the history and seek space in a unique cultural blend of old and new. So, don't limit your Hong Kong itinerary to just sightseeing, shopping, and street food hopping. There's certainly a lot more that it offers. From May 31-July 1, 2025, Hong Kong's Intangible Cultural Heritage (ICH) Office will host the inaugural 'Hong Kong ICH Month'.

Hong Kong's Intangible Cultural Heritage (ICH) Office will host the inaugural 'Hong Kong ICH Month'

A month of carnivals, fun days, field trips, workshops, and seminar talks, which will be part of the 'ICH Around Town'. A time to immerse yourself in the city's rich cultural heritage, one activity at a time. Over 80 performances and 60 interactive booths during the festival will enthrall crowds. Be it a tour in six handpicked districts or the "Genesis and Spirit: Intangible Cultural Heritage Exhibition on Jiangxi's Ganzhou Hakka Culture, there is so much to do and see.

In line with the Chinese Culture Promotion Series, the ICH promotes Chinese history through its many programmes giving tourists and the public the chance to learn about the intriguing Chinese culture. The buzzing city of Hong Kong beckons you to wear your dancing shoes, your most festive attire and be part of the city's year-round vibrant festivities.

There are world-class events and even seasonal celebrations in the mix. So, there's always something happening day in and day out in Hong Kong. Among the many unmissable events is the Sun Life Hong Kong International Dragon Boat Races happening from 7-8 June, 2025. Watch Victoria Harbour mystically transform into a space of cheer and celebrations as the adrenaline-fueled races return to the Tsim Sha Tsui East Promenade.

For carnival goers, the Brazil Meets Hong Kong, from June 20 to 29, 2025, held at AIA Vitality Park in Central, celebrates Brazilian culture with much pomp and glory. Expect a 10-day celebration of the South American nation featuring samba, reggae and other activities. The first-ever Brazilian carnival in Hong Kong may soon become the city's annual event, blending the carnival fever with the city's multicultural set-up.
