The Diwali stay offer is available for bookings and stays from 6 to 10 November 2026. It includes complimentary stays and meals for children up to 12 years, along with a credit voucher towards food and beverages and spa services. Customers can choose from beach destinations like Goa to Hills and Pilgrimage destinations.

Akshay Thusoo, Senior Vice President – Commercial, Sarovar Hotels, said, “Diwali is a time when people come together to celebrate, and our aim is to make these occasions more convenient and memorable for our guests. By bringing together festive stays at our hotels and Ghar Mehfil’s at-home catering, we are extending Sarovar Hotels hospitality beyond the hotel environment. This offering gives families and groups the flexibility to celebrate in a way that works best for them, while enjoying the warmth, service and food experiences associated with Sarovar Hotels.”

Extending the festive experience beyond its hotels, Ghar Mehfil offers customised multi cuisine menus for home gatherings starting at eight guests. The service includes a chef and a server, with staffing and menu options tailored to the size and requirements of each gathering. Pricing is based on the selected menu and service requirements.

Through this offering, Sarovar Hotels is extending its festive hospitality proposition across hotel and home settings, giving guests the flexibility to celebrate Diwali in a way that suits their preferences.
